

Mt. Hood Community College
Spend Winter Term 2020 Studying Spanish in San Isidro del General, Costa Rica
January 24 to March 14, 2020

- While you learn Spanish, enjoy a home stay with a Costa Rican family in San Isidro, a gateway town to beautiful beaches and excellent hiking.
- Earn 15 transfer credits in Mount Hood Community College's Spanish Immersion Program in San Isidro del General. Courses offered are first-year Spanish (SPAN 101, 102, 103), second-year Spanish (SPAN 201, 202, 203), International Studies, or Independent Study--Spanish. Courses include conversation, grammar, and writing as well as Costa Rican culture.
- Receive attention from qualified native instructors, as you begin to think in Spanish within a week! In eight weeks (7 in Costa Rica, 1 at MHCC), you will complete an entire year's worth of college Spanish by studying the language daily in small group settings—all possible with the immersion experience.
- Program Cost: estimated at $5,500. This includes MHCC tuition; all students must register for 15 credits. Flight and ground transportation from Portland to San Isidro, room and board (two meals per day), tuition/ books at the language school SEPA, and the counsel of a resident instructor from MHCC.
- Financial Aid can be applied towards the cost of the program. Please follow the steps on the "Study Abroad and Federal Financial Aid" flier available upon request.
- Group size is limited to 20 students – reserve your place today!
