

MHCC Immunization Requirements

MHCC does not require students to have any specific vaccinations prior to or during enrollment. However, specific programs and or departments may require student vaccination records in order to enter or complete their educational program. This information will be given to the students directly from the specific department or program.