

The Write-In

Tuesday, Feb 18, 2020

1 – 4 p.m.

In the AVID| Learning Success Center, upstairs above the library. (Stop in to AC 3315 first for free cookies!)

Room AC 3316 (Across the hall from the AVID room)

1:00: Sean McGinty (Professor), reading from his young adult fiction

1:20: Celia Carlson (faculty), reading and presentation on ‘Why Write?’

1:40: Sara Rivara (Dean), reading from her poetry

2:00: Cassandra Walters (artist and staff member), reading and discussion of creativity

2:20: Patricia Matteri (Writing tutor), reading from her short story, and advice for student writers

2:40: Tom Fuller (faculty), reading from his fiction

3:00 – 3:30: Grant Burgess: The Five Word Challenge Game, inspired by games in the pubs of Ireland. Write a poem on the spot with others and share the fun

3:30 – 4 p.m.: English language learners present poems and readings in their native language

AC 3313 (available 1 – 3 p.m.)

“Open Microphone” 1 – 3 p.m. Anyone interested to read may do so.